

Customs formalities, goods transport Kazakhstan

For the driver, the following documents are required:

- passport;
- international driving licence;
- transport authorisation.

For the vehicle, the following documents are required:

- vehicle registration certificate;
- third party risk insurance policy, valid in Kazakhstan;
- certificate of approval of road vehicle;
- distinguishing sign of country of registration (trailers may have registration plates or the distinguishing sign of a different country from that of the motor vehicle).

For the goods, the following documents are required:

- TIR carnet;
- ATP certificate for vehicles transporting perishable goods.

Source: KAZATO, January 2004